Informattec is Jedox «Partner of the Year 2018 Switzerland»

Jedox, a leading provider of enterprise planning software solutions based in Freiburg im Breisgau, Germany, recognizes the special achievements of its international business partners. At the Jedox Global Partner Summit 2018 in Cologne, they honored Informattec from Muttenz with the "2018 Partner of the Year Switzerland" award for outstanding achievements and special commitment.

Muttenz, 02.10.2018 – The award presented to Informattec is the result of the targeted strengthening of competencies in the areas of planning and corporate performance management and the acquisition of new customers for the Jedox platform in Switzerland. The acquisition of the Jedox activities of Entech AG in May 2018 as well as the successful integration of the Jedox planning functionalities into the Qlik platform additionally supported the decision for the award "Partner of the Year 2018 Switzerland".

"We are proud of this award, the long-standing and good partnership with Jedox and the top status as Partner of the Year in Switzerland" says Christian Fischer, Head of Sales and Partner at Informattec. "This award reflects our intensive efforts and professional commitment to Jedox," Fischer continued. "For us, Jedox is a strategic product that we have firmly anchored in our technology strategy," concludes Fischer.

Commenting on the award, Bernd Eisenblätter, Chief Sales Officer of Jedox, said: "The Jedox Partner Awards celebrate the success of our partners and show that together we can meet the complex business needs of our customers and support them with seamless enterprise planning solutions for digitization. We are very committed to the growing Jedox partner network and are proud to honor our outstanding partners for their solution expertise, innovation and clear focus on customer value - congratulations to Informattec and all the other award winners!"
